

A combination of COTS (commercial off the shelf) technologies is can perform underwater port monitoring, classification and inspection.

I include below the abstract of a keynote presented to the Coast Guard at the Underwater Technology Demonstration in Miami November 20,2002. I will give this paper once again at Underwater Intervention in New Orleans 12 February 2003. If interested please attend or contact me.